Blue Sky
Federation

Dear Parents/Carers,

Happy New Year! We hope you enjoyed the festive season and that you and yours are now ready for the second half of the academic year.

This is the first newsletter from us, the co-chairs of governors. Overleaf is a little information about our backgrounds and a list of all of our governors. We have recently had new additions to our body and to help you identify us we are putting up a 'Meet the Governors' board in each school to give you some information about each governor alongside a photograph.

There were two opportunities in December to meet with us and the headteacher for 'coffee and a catch up'. To those parents who attended we thank you. To those who could not join us we will be holding more of these in the coming months and hope to see as many of you as possible.

We, and our fellow governors, are passionate about education in general and The Blue Sky Federation in particular. We believe that all children deserve the very best education in a safe, stimulating, happy environment and we will work hard with the staff to facilitate this.

Your views are very important to us and we hope you will help us to make our Governing Body an effective, transparent group, please feel free to email us if you have any ideas or initiatives you wish to share. Our email address is: cog@bsf.norfolk.sch.uk (Please be aware that school related problems or issues need to be directed to school).

We look forward to meeting you in the very near future.

Our next 'coffee and catch up' meetings will be held on January 18th at Erpingham and March 1st at Northrepps.

Best wishes

Corallie Murray

Dr Corallie Murray

Blue Sky
Federation

Corallie is a retired headteacher who spent much of her career in Special Education and has worked in primary and secondary schools for pupils with learning difficulties and emotional and behavioural difficulties.

Corallie led her school to become the first outstanding special school in Northamptonshire, which it remained until her retirement and, as a consequence, the school was awarded Teaching School status - the first primary school in Northamptonshire to achieve this.

Corallie has a PhD in educational leadership and management and has recently worked as an associate lecturer at the University of Derby as a teaching student assessor and mentor.

Corallie is a dedicated gardener and enjoys cooking, travelling, reading and spending time with her three-year-old grandson.

Heather Duxbury MBE

Heather is passionate about education and believes that every child deserves a quality education to enable them to achieve their personal best.

Heather has worked in education in a number of different locations for over 30 years. Before retiring and choosing to live beside the sea in beautiful Norfolk, she was the headteacher of a British primary school in Luxembourg which had over 400 children of 50 different nationalities. In 2014 she was awarded the MBE for services to British Education.

Heather is married with four children and two grandchildren, and so has the privilege of knowing education not only as a professional but also as a parent and grandparent. Her interests include walking, sewing, travelling, reading and going to the theatre and concerts, all possible here in Norfolk.
